

POSSESSION MARIJUANA DRUGS VIRGINIA PWID

Virginia has classified controlled substances into schedules.

The three factors that determine the punishment of those convicted of a drug crime in Virginia are the quantity of the drug, the classification of the drug per the schedules, and the purpose of the drug's possession.

Production, manufacture and sale of drugs are one of the most serious drug crimes in Virginia.

A common acronym for possession with intent to distribute drugs is (PWID).

Virginia all a prosecutor has to do to prove PWID is prove the quantity of the drug in the possession of the person charged with the drug crime.

Virginia now has what is called enhanced punishment for those who use juveniles to distribute drugs, specifically targeting the sale of drugs to minors, or the sale of drugs on or near school property.

Any property that is gained through the sale of illicit substances or used in the course of the drug trade may be seized and forfeited. Frequently, the state or the federal government will seize homes, cars, boats, jewelry as fruits of the drug trade. The Virginia drug defense attorneys of SRIS, P.C. defend clients who are charged with drug offenses.

We frequently represent clients who are charged with possession of marijuana and other controlled substances. If you wish to consult with a Virginia drug defense attorney of SRIS, P.C., please simply call us at 888-437-7747, email or our fast on line form. A criminal defense lawyer of SRIS, P.C. will discuss your case with you and advise you of your options.

Our staff and attorneys in Virginia, Maryland & Massachusetts speak the following languages in addition to English: Spanish, French, Arabic, Hindi, Tamil, Telugu, Cantonese, Mandarin and Malaysian.

www.srislawyer.com

Our offices in Virginia are in Northern Virginia (Fairfax County, Prince William County & Loudoun County), Central Virginia (Richmond & Fredericksburg), Hampton Roads/Tidewater Area (Virginia Beach) & Western Virginia (Lynchburg).